DIRECTIONS:

Students are to read at least one fiction and one non-fiction book from the Summer Reading list. Students are graded every 4.5 weeks on what they have read for Independent Reading. Students will take quizzes on the book(s) they have decided to read. Students who are taking English Regular need to achieve at least 15 points and English Honors need to earn at least 20 points on the books they choose from the Summer Reading list.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can my child read two books for Summer Reading, then read another Accelerated Reader book that is not on the Summer Reading list in order to get points for the first Independent Reading grade?

No. All points attained for the first Independent Reading assignment (first 4.5 weeks) must be books that are on the Summer Reading list. Students are allowed to use any Accelerated Reading book for any subsequent Independent Reading assignments.

Do I have to buy the books on the Summer Reading List?

If you choose to purchase the books that are listed on the Summer Reading, you are more than welcome to do so. However, all books on the Summer Reading list are available in multiple formats (eBooks, audiobooks, and print) in the East Baton Rouge Parish Public Library and through MackinVia from the Baton Rouge Magnet High Library collection. Please visit EBRPL.com (the public library) or MackinVia.com for further details and for book checkout. In order to log into MackinVia, students will have to use their district student login. In order to check out a book from the East Baton Rouge Parish Public Library, students will have to use their public library card.

If you are new to the district, you will not have access to MackinVia until after orientation in July.

What is the point of reading AR books?

Research indicates that the more we read, the more our reading skills improve. Our writing, vocabulary, and thinking skills also improve. The success carries over into other classes and into numerous aspects of our lives. Reading can also be one of the most enjoyable forms of entertainment that we can embrace for the rest of our lives.

Will Independent Reading increase a student's scores on standardized reading tests?

Used as intended-as a stimulus for students to read widely and well, gradually increasing both the difficulty and comprehension of the materials read- the Independent Reading program will certainly increase reading scores.

What interest level of books can my child choose?

Students are allowed to choose books from interest levels MG+ and UG. Students are not to read LG or MG books.

What do the acronyms shown in the Book Descriptions mean?

MG+=Middle Grades plus

UG=Upper Grades

BL: Book Level

PTS: Points
